Mission Statement:

La Phare, The Lighthouse, is a church plant of the Evangelical Free Church Mission. Located in Waterloo, south of Brussels, their mission is three fold: Anchored upon the Rock (Mt. 7:24), Shining in the Darkness (Phil. 2:15) and A Community for God's Glory (Acts 2:42-47). The church is elder led, and puts a strong emphasis on Small Group involvement.

It was begun in 1998, and has applied for membership in the Evangelical Francophone Churches of Belgium.

The property, a former auto body shop, is only the shell of a building. As of the end of 2005, there was no water, heat or electricity. The church members hope to finance as much as they can themselves, and are looking for believers to come alongside of them and assist with the construction, so that they can begin using the facilities in 2006.

Description of Work:

The entire church building is being renovated. Most of the demolition is completed. The church needs help with the finishing work: interior walls, dropped ceilings, painting, wall papering, tiling, electrical outlets, plumbing fixtures. A local architect is running the project schedule. The first phase is the completion of the first floor, for some Sunday School classrooms, and the main sanctuary. Second Phase is the upstairs, third would be the landscaping and parking.
